Ashley's Story

RON WANEK

*Chairman of the Board
Ashley Furniture Industries, LLC*

Ron's passion for furniture began early in life. He was inspired watching his grandfather and great uncle build it as a hobby. In 1970, he followed in their footsteps, joining a group of investors to form Arcadia Furniture Corporation. And this small, upstart, furniture manufacturing company would put Ron Wanek on the path to success.

In 1996, ownership changed. Arcadia Furniture Corporate and Ashley Furniture merged to become Ashley Furniture Industries, Inc. This new company could now leverage a widely-recognized, and trusted brand name in existence since 1945. Ron's expertise and determination would become the driving force for one of the most incredible success stories in the history of the furniture industry.

TODD WANEK

*President and CEO
Ashley Furniture Industries, LLC*

By the mid-1980's, Ron's son, Todd, showed interest in working for Ashley. He served in every area of the business while still in school. After managing Asian operations from 1989-1993, Todd returned home to the United States. In 1994, Ashley purchased an upholstered furniture manufacturing operation, and Todd was tapped to lead that division.

By 1999, Ashley was a major player in nearly every product category and one of the best marketers in the furniture industry. In 2002, Todd Wanek, now widely recognized as the industry's foremost authority on international trade and manufacturing, succeeded his father to become Ashley's Chief Executive Officer — a position he still holds today.
